Good Friday

What's good about Good Friday?

What on earth could be good about a man - any man - being brutally killed?

Well, let's be honest - nothing is ever good about someone losing their life. But this isn't just anyone - this is Jesus Christ, God's Son. And the person who dies on the Cross is the human embodiment of Jesus; but, as we know, that Jesus isn't only human - he is also divine. And so we know there is more to come.

Each one of us is made in the image of God and, as I've said many, many times, each one of us has a spark of the divine within us. We have the capacity to be Christ-like, God-like. The only thing that stops us is sin - the human angle. When Jesus died on the Cross, what died was a human person - and what remained,
